NEWS OF THIS VICINITY

ARCHBALD.

Mrs. Edward Craig, a respected and well known resident of the East Side, died on Sunday morning after a long illness. Mrs. Craig was an old resident of this borough, having come here when the place contained only a few houses. She was a kindhearted and hospitable lady who was respected by all who knew her. She is survived by three daughters and two sons. They are Mrs. John Healy, Mary and Sarah Craig and John Craig, of this place, and another son in the west. Her funeral takes place this morning. Interment will be in the Catholic cemetery.

The family of Thomas Battle, of Center street, has moved to Carbondale. James Gilgallon, Jr., of South Main street, has been promoted to the assistant superintendency of the business of the Metropolitan Life Insurance company in this district. He succeeds M. F. Gilgallon, who has been made assistant superintendent of Carbondale district.

The fair of St. Thomas' congregation closed on Saturday night until Thanksgiving, when it will re-open in the afternoon and evening. The attendance on Saturday was very large and a highly interesting entertainment was given.

Abram Howells, of the Ridge, is on the jury this week.

Although the borough election is nearly three months away, already there is speculation as to who the candidates for the various offices will be. It is not likely that the contest will be as interesting this year as it has been in previous years, because there is neither a burgess nor a tax collector to be elected. There are only two councilmen, two school directors, three assessors and the minor ward officers to be chosen. The terms of Councilmen Caffrey and Swift expire in March and the terms of School Directors Price, Lally and Kietly expire in June. It is said that Mr. Swift will be a candidate to succeed himself in the council, and it is announced that T. F. O'Horo will also be a candidate for the same office.

For school director Mr. Lally and Mr. Kietly may again be candidates and it is hinted that Thomas F. Kelly will also be a candidate for Mr. Lally's seat and Conrad Kienbauer for that of Mr. Kietly. So far no one from the First ward has come forward to succeed Mr. Caffrey or Mr. Price. Patrick J. McDonnell, of Mount Vernon, may be the Democratic candidate for assessor in the Second ward and John R. McElaine candidate for constable from the same ward. These are all the names thus far mentioned in connection with the different offices to be filled.
